

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Saint Benedict was born of African slaves. He was freed at birth and was known for his charity.

He was a Franciscan lay brother and cook. His holiness and fame as a confessor brought hordes of visitors to see the obscure and humble cook.

Written & Illustrated by John Sheppard