

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Saint Eva was the daughter of King Pepin and a Benedictine Abbess in the 9th century.

She was cured of blindness by Saint Rainfredis.

She was also acclaimed a saint before the process of canonization so she would have been proclaimed a saint at her death by the people who knew of her holiness.

Written & Illustrated by John Sheppard