

Catholic Online

INFORM - INSPIRE - IGNITE

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Joan of Arc is the patroness of the military and of France. As a 17 year old, she was given a small army and won many battles supporting the French king. She was captured by the Burgundians and sold to the British, was accused, tried and convicted of heresy and condemned to death.

Written & Illustrated by John Sheppard