

Advent Prayer to be like Mary

Oh Blessed Mother

As we ponder the wonder of your unwavering “yes” that opened the way for the Savior to dwell among us, we ask for your gentle presence beside us as we endeavor to reveal Christ’s love to everyone we meet.

In this sacred season filled with the warmth of hopeful anticipation, we seek your guidance and strength.

May we reflect your unshaken love and dedication, carrying forth peace and justice in a world that longs for healing.

When the urge arises to separate ourselves from others, grant us the grace to extend a generous heart.

In times of frustration, help us to listen deeply, attuning our hearts to the voices of those near us.

When we encounter disappointment, inspire us to find new paths, just as you searched with steadfast faith when all doors seemed closed.

Let us embrace a spirit of humility and simplicity, recognizing our need for these virtues to build a compassionate world as we await the glorious arrival of Christ.

Amen.
